THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 5.

APPRENTICES.—The Chicago Tribune has an energetic article on the subject of the stringent rules in regard to appretices adopted by some trades unions. It speaks of the diffi-culty encountered by the boys of Chicago in getting employment. It says there are hundreds of boys in that city, from fifteen to eight-een years of age, who daily go from store to store and office to office, anxiously and often piteously seeking employment. Assuming that there are five thousand boys in that city of a proper age to learn a mechanical trade, the Tribune says if they were all presented to employers it is not likely that more than one in a thousand, or five out of five thousand, could find an employer. The Tribune thus answers:— "The right to apprentice oneself and to learn a

PARLOR FIRE PLACE STOVE. Illuminating Baltimore Fire Place Heaters .-

His several succeeding patents have been improvements, until this last is the superior of them all. It excels all the popular Fire Place Stoves in beauty of finish, tasteful carving, and in heat ing power. It is the result of twenty-two years' practical experience in inventing and manufacturing Fire Place Stoves, and combines all the improvements of our former Stoves, with additional improvements made this present season This Stove is a decided success. Several hundred of them were put up in dwellings during the latter part of the Fall and during the Winter, and we have received many testimonials added a new Fire Place Stove to our list this season. This Stove is suitable for dining rooms. It is very ornamental and would answer for par-lors also. It has the convenience of a large oven, injure the general health. It is an excellent lors also. It has the convenience of a large oven, which can be used for warming plates, and heating irons, as well as baking and boiling.

We also manufacture the BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS, which are Top-Feeding and Self-Feeding Stove. They are heavifully and Self-Feeding Stove. They are beautifully finished and of great heating power.

trade is no longer recognized in the U.S. We often hear exhortations from the press and other sources to the youth of the country, "Learn a useful trade." It is good advice, for every community abounds with idle boys, and with those who are not idle, but who cannot find appropriate employment. Thus it is not so easy to learn a trade as is supposed. In the professions and in other pursuits the bars are down, and any who will may enter. It is true the consequence is that they are overstocked, but no one suffers thereby except the incompe-tent and unworthy. Multitudes of robust youths are growing up with nothing to do, exposed to the temptation incident to idleness and destined, perhaps, to prey upon the com-munity in some way, even if it be by ending their days in the penitentiary. There is no more unjustifiable and demoralizing monopoly
